THE WORLD'S WONDER.
DR. ABBETT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC
—OR—
LIVER MEDICINE.
A SAFE and certain cure for all kinds of Liver Complaints, and all diseases and indispositions that originate from a diseased state or inactivity of the Liver, such as Chronic and Acute Inflammations of the Liver,
Dyspepsia, Sick Headache,
Sourness of the Stomach,
Loss of Appetite,
Lowliness of Spirits, Colic,
Costiveness, Fever, Ague,
Billious Fever, Dropsy and Jaundice.
These Medicines are purely Vegetable, and perfectly harmless; but their efficacy is too permanently established in all the Southern and Western States to require any further recommendations. The wise will not fail to give them a fair trial—this is all that is asked.

LAGRANGE, GA., DEC. 3, 1869.
MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER, West Point, Ga. Gentlemen: Having witnessed almost daily, for the last fifteen years, the great efficacy of the preparation you are now putting up, known as "Abbett's Medicine," it affords me pleasure to state that I know of no combinations or preparation equal to it in the treatment of Liver Diseases of whatever character, and would cordially recommend it to all who are suffering from derangement of the Liver, and especially the Dyspeptic.
I am, very respectfully,
T. S. BRADFIELD, Druggist.

WEST POINT, GA., OCT. 15, 1869.
MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER: Gentlemen—I can honestly and confidently recommend L. B. Abbett's Liver or Dyspeptic Medicine, as prepared by you, to the favorable notice of the suffering public. Having used this Medicine myself in my family for twenty years, I can highly recommend it for removing pain or flatulency from the stomach, caused by indigestion. It also has a happy effect in removing constipation of the bowels. I believe it to be the best universal remedy the world has yet discovered for the above named diseases. With my best wishes to you in introducing this valuable Medicine to the public, I remain,
Yours, truly, A. K. KENDRICK.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, MARCH 7.

See Fourth Page.

COMMERCIAL.

ATLANTA, 3 O'CLOCK, March 7, 1870.

Business opened moderately brisk this morning. Corn is in excellent demand, and prices show advancing tendency. The decline in gold is affecting everything else but freights. Our merchants have always been noted for their small profits. As illustrative of the high freight-tariffs, we give the following extract from letters received by one of our most extensive merchants.

MIDWAY, Tenn. March 5.

We are ready to resume our shipments, but when we look at the increase of freights, our energies are below zero. We wrote R. C. Jackson, Superintendent East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, why such an increase of freights. In reply, he stated that "our road" (the E. T. and Va. Railroad) "proposes to ship hay to Dalton at 33 00 per car load. The Western and Atlantic Road charges 32 00 per car load from Dalton to Atlanta—100 miles, only." We have heard many shippers say they had better give their produce to the poor of East Tennessee than give it to the Western and Atlantic Railroad. H. & B.

SPRING PLACE, GA., Feb. 19.

Salt and coffee received. On account of the enormous freight bill charge against me, it will be imprudent for me to ever again favor you or any other merchant in Atlanta with further orders. For 1.215 pounds I am charged 7 20. This makes salt cost me 3 15 per sack "laid down" at Dalton; whereas, salt of the same quality and kind can be bought at Ellijay, forty miles from any line of railroad, somewhat cheaper. G.

[In standard prints we notice a decline of one cent per yard.]

President Grant is in favor strongly of Bradley's nomination. He will only withdraw the nomination if a bill is passed requiring a Southern man to be appointed.

Auditor Wickliffe of Louisiana has been unanimously impeached.

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER IN COLUMBUS.—We understand that a number of gentlemen of means propose starting another paper in Columbus, and that a well known editor and politician will control its columns. Success to the enterprise.

THE CINCINNATI RAILROAD.—The correspondent of the Louisville Commercial thus writes about the defeat of the Southern Railroad:

The defeat of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad in the Senate to-day is the general topic of conversation in the Capitol. Intense feeling is manifested by the members and citizens from Central Kentucky over what they feel to be a sacrifice of their interests to benefit the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

Governor Bullock Before the Committee.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette thinks that Governor Bullock bored out the Committee. H. thus writes of his last performance:

The carpet-bag Excellency, Governor Bullock, of Georgia, appeared before the Senate Judiciary Committee this morning, and read a pamphlet, intended as a reply to the statements of the anti-Bullock delegation, and to show that everything he has done is perfectly legal and exceedingly proper. This document made noticeable impression on the Committe. It bored them immensely. Even Mr. Trumbull's attention flagged, toward the close, while others of the Committee did not attempt to conceal their very evident weariness. The fact is that Bullock is held in very light regard here, even by Senators who formerly lent him a willing ear.

Reconstruction's Folly and Crime.

The following paragraph on the Georgia case, by our excellent contemporary of the Nashville Union and American, contains a very profound truth. The loyal howl that is made against certain acts of the Democrats subsides into a weak whine of perplexed acquiescence over the enormities of Radical usurpation.

The Radical party sees its own law deliberately disdained by its creatures here for their personal interests, and yet submits to it. It shows indeed the mockery of Reconstruction:

The Senate Judiciary Committee has been compelled to make the humiliating confession that the Georgia reconstruction case is a nut which, though grown on its own tree, it can not crack. The Committee does not like the violent and lawless manner in which the Legislature was organized, but still will recommend that this violence and lawlessness be recognized and the State admitted, as "the best thing that can be done, under the circumstances." The St. Louis Republican says this pitiable acknowledgement is the legitimate outcome of all the wrong, crime and folly, done under the name of reconstruction. And it might have added that this conduct would not have been tolerated had Satrap Terry been a Democrat.

Communicated.]

To the Building Committee of the City Council of the City of Atlanta:

GENTS: We, the undersigned, herewith submit a proposition for the erection of first class modern Fair Exhibition Buildings, and all other necessary improvements on the grounds selected by your Honorable body for that purpose, in accordance with the plans and specifications agreed upon by the Mayor and Council of the City of Atlanta and the Executive Committee of the Georgia State Agricultural Society.

We propose to have everything ready in ample time for the Fair to be held here on the 19th day of October, 1870, but in the event all parties agree, we would prefer that the time be changed to the 1st of October, in order to secure the Northern and Northwestern patronage, at which time we agree to have everything ready.

For which we would require

1. A lease of the property for the term of eight years, and a loan from the City of ($50,000) fifty thousand dollars, in their bonds, for which we propose to give ample security.

2. We further agree to pay the interest as it matures on said bond; also, to pay or return the bonds and coupons at their maturity to the city of Atlanta.

3. The said improvements to be kept in good repair, and insured at our expense during the term of our lease. At the expiration of our lease, we will require the city to pay us one-third of the value of the improvements on said Fair Grounds.

4. We require the city to have said Fair Ground incorporated as early as possible, and said improvements to be exempt from taxation by State and city.

5. The city will be required to furnish an efficient police force to keep order during exhibitions.

6. It is further understood and agreed that all the income and emoluments to be derived from all sources connected with or pertaining to the Fair during our lease, shall, after specified expenses are paid, be ours. Respectfully submitted.

E. R. CARR,
S. R. McCAMY.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 24, 1870.

To the Mayor and Council of Atlanta, Ga:

GENTLEMEN: As some of our citizens have exhibited considerable interest in the two bids made to the city for improving the Fair Grounds, we have deemed it our duty to examine the proposal of Mr. H. I. Kimball for your benefit, and that of the citizens:

We give the following result of our investigations:

We shall first make an exhibit of the cash and bonded transaction as follows:

Amount of bonds to be delivered to him on acceptance of his proposal, say July 1, 1870	$75,000 00
1. Coupon interest due January	2,625 00

9. Coupon interest on balance July 1, 1875	1,751 74
Interest on same to expiration of lease, July 1, 1877	306 55
10. Coupon interest due July 1, 1875	1,751 74
Interest on same to expiration of July 1, 1876	245 24
	$54,105 23
Credit by 5th payment, July 1, 1875	12,500 00
Balance, July 1 1875	$41,605 23
11. Coupon interest on balance, January 1, 1876	1,456 18
Interest on same to expiration of lease, July 1, 1876	152 89
12. Coupon interest due July 1, 1876	1,456 18
Interest on same to expiration of lease, July 1, 1876	101 93
	$44,972 41
Credit by 6th payment, July 1, 1876	12,500 00
Balance due at expiration of lease, July 1, 1876	$32,272 41
The estimated insurance for six years, at $300 per year, term of lease.	1,800 00
The estimated amount required to make up the deficit in the premium list, over and above the probable income, say $2,000 per year,	12,000 00
The estimated fire risk for 1870,	500 00
	$46,572 41

The two leading propositions set forth in Mr. H. I Kimball's proposal, we beg leave to call your attention to:

1. He proposes to build upon and improve the Fair Ground, according to plans and specifications, with this addition: He proposes to put up a fine arch gate way or entrance.

The Mayor and Council to give him bonds of the city, to the amount of	$75,000 00
And certain emoluments arising from the Fair of 1870, estimated at $15,000 to $20,000, say	15,000 00
Estimated deficit in premium list for the year 1870,	2,000 00
Estimated cost of the officers of the Society for 1870,	3,000 00
	$95,000 00

This closes the first proposition in his contract, and releases him from his bond.

2. He requires you to lease to him the said fair grounds for six years, dating from January 1, '71, for $12,500 per year, payable on the 1st day of July, of the year, for which he does not obligate himself in any way to take the grounds for the term of six years.

Amount forward, 1st item,	$ 95,000 00
Credit by six years lease, $12,500 per year,	75,000 00
	$20,000 00
Estimated cost of Agricultural Society for six years, at $3,000 per year,	18,000 00
Balance of cash and bonded exhibit,	46,572 41
To balance cost of Fair Grounds at expiration of lease,	$ 84,572 41
Deduct for the above, the probable one-third values at the expiration of our lease, say viz: Carr & McCamey,	20,000 00
Difference in bids of $64,572 41	$64,572 41
Deduct two years lease at the rate proposed by Mr. Kimball, $25,000,	$ 25,000 00
	$39,572 41

Mr. H. I Kimball states further, that if he fails to pay the rent on the day of its maturity, that the city has the right to take possession without the processes of law. In this event, he has complied with his contract.

With the following result he will have received in bonds,	$75,000 00
Proceeds of the Fair of 1870 estimated at $15,000,	15,000 00
	$90,000 00
Building of the Fair Grounds estimated to cost, say	45,000 00
Leaves a surplus of	$45,000 00

This exhibit was before the Council at the time the contract was awarded to Mr. Kimball.

Respectfully submitted,
E. R. CARR,
S. R. McCAMEY.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Gov. Bullock before the Committee—He Repudiates Judge Gibson—He Takes After Caldwell—The Bayonet Senators—Racy Reading.

WASHINGTON March 2, 1870.

At 10 o'clock precisely, this morning—it is well to be minute and particular in writing current history—Beast Butler appeared at the door of the room of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate. Messrs. Trumbull and Stewart, of the Committee, had arrived only a few minutes before. Close upon the heels of Butler trotted a dapper little man smoking a huge cigar, an inimitable Habana. This oiled, scented and carefully curled individual of the genus poodle, is Georgia's seventh Senator elect. He knocks the ashes from his cigar at the door of the Committee room, peeps in, and then trots off again. Now comes Bryant; and as it is time for the farce to begin, your correspondent, as the representative of more Georgians than a dozen Bullocks could claim, steps into the Committee room.

Soon Bullock rises and commences reading, in a very monotonous and rather low voice, a printed pamphlet which he assures the Committee has the merit of brevity. It is well it has this merit, for it has no other. It commences with a reference to and contradictions of the statement made to the Committee on previous occasions by Messrs. Bryant and Caldwell.

On the first page, however, Bullock makes what might be considered a rather unflattering reference to the Committee, at the expense of exposing his own ignorance. He professed not to know by what right Georgia was summoned before the Committee, but was interrupted by Mr. Trumbull, who referred him to the Globe for two resolutions, upon which the action of the Committee is based. Much surprise was manifested when Bullock proceeded to deliberately repudiate Judge Gibson, by declaring the statement that "Judge Gibson appeared in behalf of Governor Bullock" at a former meeting of the Committee, to be incorrect. I was present when Judge Gibson did appear "in behalf of Governor Bullock," as was understood by every one at the time, and I think so stated by Judge Gibson himself. Why Governor B. should thus go back on his friend and ally no one here can tell. Mr. Caldwell, however, is the chief victim selected by Governor Bullock, and not content with endeavoring to impugn the statements of Mr. C. in relation to the organization of the Legislature, he proceeds, with a formidable array of italics and exclamation points, to "destroy Mr. Caldwell's consistency by referring to his political record." Bullock assumed that "the truth of history demands" this onslaught on Mr. Caldwell; as if that gentleman's political record has anything to do with questions involving the admission of Georgia, or the seating of her Senators and Representatives. Bullock vindicating the "truth of history!" What a subject for a historical painting, or a statue, representing Bullock on a pedestal of political dishonesty, with a carpet-bag in one hand and lyre in the other! The lyre would not imply that Bullock has, or had, musical tastes, and I don't know why I should have introduced it, except that the name somehow has a familiar ring in connection with Georgia's misrepresentations.

Bullock went into the Senatorial question at some length, in the interest of the "bayonet Senators," as Whitely and Farrow are continually called here. General Terry was referred to as "interfering to preserve life and property, arresting and confining innocent, honest negro whippers, etc." Bullock also charges that throughout the State, candidates were selected for their "rebel record," not because they were qualified to hold, or their party desired or expected them to hold, office, but simply and solely to bring out voters by their rebel record, against the Constitution.

With regard to extending terms of office Bullock says:

"It has never been proposed to extend any officer's official term, although there are plenty of men in office who have extended their term since the time when Jeff. Davis was elected President of the Confederate States of America."

And further, he says:

"All that I have said upon the subject is that when the organization of the Legislature should have been accepted by Congress, and the State shall have been admitted to representation, and thereby become a State in the Union, that then the members of the Legislature will enter as members de jure, upon the Constitutional term for which they were elected."

This is a distinction without a difference; a contradiction, which is neither more nor less than an admission of the charge that Bullock is seeking to extend, not only the terms of members of the Legislature, but the term of Governor Bullock and the terms of all his carpet-bag officials. It would be a nice thing, no doubt, for Bullock and the carpet-bag fraternity in Georgia, if the plot should succeed. There is very little probability that it will succeed, however, and that is a nice thing for the people of Georgia.

The following paragraph from Bullock's maifesto is racy reading:

"So far as I am personally concerned, it is well known to my personal friends and to my business acquaintances that I retain the office I now hold at great pecuniary sacrifice to myself, [should he not have added, and to the people of Georgia?] and there is certainly little comfort in being the target of either billingsgate or bullets. But as I have heretofore assured the President and General Terry, I now assure you, that my resignation is at their service. My only ambition is to firmly establish a Republican government in Georgia, and if that can be promoted in the least degree by my retirement, it will be a pleasure for me to yield the office. Rebel fault-finding and abuse, however, will never accomplish that result."

Bullock closed with a spread-eagle peroration, appealing to Congress to render its verdict in favor of loyalty and justice, and against treason and treachery.

Now, Bullock, how could you, how dared you, so grossly insult a pure and patriotic and loyal Congress, by even thinking, much less giving publicity, to a doubt as to its verdict on a question of "loyalty and justice," as against "treason and treachery."

Nothing further transpired before the Committee, beyond the reading of Bullock's pamphlet. Mr. Bryant and other conservative Republicans were present, but made no remarks and asked no questions. Blodgett came in while Bullock was reading, as did Clift, McWhorter, Rice, and others of the Bullock party.

Butler's Georgia bill was the order of the day for yesterday, but was crowded out. It may not come up for a day or two. My impression is that it will finally pass, but others, who profess to be well informed, think differently.

The Senate Judiciary Committee reported to-day on the Georgia question. My special telegram forwarded Saturday night last covers all the points. ARGUS.

Repeal of the Charter of the Air Line Railroad.

The bill passed in the State Senate some time since, for the repeal of the charter of the above road, has also been passed in the House by a vote of 48 to 23. Thus, to satisfy the pique of a negro Senator, has an important interest of the upper portion of this State been sacrificed, or, at least, greatly retarded. We hardly believed that even our Legislature would act in such a senseless and childish manner. It remains to be seen whether Governor Scott will have the good sense and firmness to veto the bill. [Greenville (S. C.) Mountaineer.

"Headland Home," by Madame de Lesdernier.

We have had the pleasure of meeting the authoress of the above excellent volume, and have the book before us.

The work is one of strong interest, and bears the mark of high culture. It is said to have been to some extent founded upon the personal experience of the gifted writer, and has therefore an additional interest. It is a work that will particularly please our lady readers, and we commend it to them. It is well written, and contains passages of genuine genius. Its tone is healthy, and its lessons instructive.

Madam Lesdernier is in our city, and will call upon our people in the interest of her work. She is sister and daughter of deceased masons. This will commend her to the masonic fraternity.

We quote the opinion of that accomplished critic, Henry T. Tuckerman, upon this interesting volume:

"HEADLAND HOME.—If we mistake not, the author of this attractive looking volume is the same lady who has given much pleasure to a large circle by her elocutionary taste and skill. Poetic sensibility was manifest in her readings, and will prepare those who have heard her to expect in a story from her pen, a vein of genuine sentiment. We can not better describe Headland Home, than by saying that it is an exposition of womanly experience. It is, in fact, a memoir, cast in the form of a romance. It deals with facts of life and phases as well as crises, of feeling, described with grace and candor. The characters are evidently drawn from life, and the story and style will interest those who delight in autobiographies of sentiment."

Butler's Clap-Trap.

Last Friday, Butler, who is Chairman of the Reconstruction Committee, wanted to bring out the bill for the admission of Georgia. When some opposition was made, that immaculate individual used the following remarkable language:

"I think the time has arrived when ordinary proper courtesy toward a sovereign State requires that this bill with reference to Georgia should be taken into consideration."

"Sovereign" is good. And is it particularly good in connection with a treatment that means simply helpless vassalage.

"His Excellency."

The wandering Executive of Georgia seems to have about tired out Congress. He has given that body a surfeit of himself. A correspondent thus writes:

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Bullock confronted the Senate Judiciary Committe again to-day, and read a printed pamphlet in reply to the arguments of the anti-Bullocks herefore delivered. The Committee took but little interest in his high-toned self-laudations and little flings at his opponents. Several members of the Committee were absent and the session dragged heavily for an hour, and the Committee rose and relieved themselves of Bullock's presence, who is making himself daily and hourly more obnoxious and contemptible by his persistence in his side of the Georgia game.

VISIT.—We had the pleasure of a call this week from Col. Acton, of the Atlanta CONSTITUTION. He is a noble agent; he knows how to enlist the attention and sympathies of those he meets. He gets subscribers wherever he goes; and no wonder, for he represents the best paper in the State; his paper has the latest news and the most of it; has the best reading matter in the way of selections; always chaste, and admissable in any company; and it has the best, truest and soundest editorials of any that come to this office. It is winning its way, and if it maintains its present character (and we hardly think it will be corrupted) it will certainly be found all over the land.—Walton Witness.

The Douglas Democracy.

For The Constitution.]

ROME, GA., March 5, 1870.

Mr. Editor: Let us not give up the ship, nor despair of the Republic. The name and the teachings of a Douglas, supported as they will be by the Stephenses, the Johnsons, the Wrights, the Woffords, the Warners, the Gordons, the Irwins, and thousands of others who earnesty desire the restoration of peace and good government, —supported as they will be everywhere by good and true men, the name and teachings of Stephen A. Douglas will have power to save. The ship will not be lost. The Republic and republican liberty will yet survive as an inheritance to bless us and our posterity.

A consummation so desirable is not far distant.

OUR PLATFORM SHOULD BE:

1. The restoration and maintenance of the powers reserved by the Constitution of the United States, "to the States respectively or to the people;" including the powers not delegated for national purposes, nor forbidden to the States or the people thereof.
2. The restoration of the Union under the Constitution, and the avoidance of war by every peaceful means within our power, so as to allow the exasperations of the late civil conflict to yield to counsels of moderation.
3. Legislation—State and national should be exclusively for the public good: and no acts of retaliation for party grievances should be allowed.
4. Honesty and capacity to be looked to as the chief qualification for office.
5. Equal protection before the law; exclusive favors to none; but justice to all.
6. No repudiation of the public debt. Rigid economy in public expenditures.
7. The institution of slavery irrevocably and forever abolished.

These are perhaps the prominent outlines of a platform of principles which should guide us in the great work of restoration soon. I hope, to be inaugurated—outlines respectfully submitted to the people, without respect of party, for their earnest consideration.

Yours very truly,
J. A. STEWART.

Private letters from Cuba say that Gen. Jordan has resigned the command of the army. It is confirmed.

The Election Committee have decided against Segar, the Virginia Congressman at large.

The Treasury expenses in February were $16,298,488, not counting public debt payments.

The total imports for six month to Jan. 1870, were $213,698,192: exports $199,-24,111.

A Review of the Motley Crew at Atlanta by a Radical.

We clip the following from a letter of the Cincinnati Commercial's Atlanta correspondent:

ATLATA, Feb. 19, 1870.

THE UNPLEASANTNESS

Caused by thrusting our African brethren aside and giving all the Senatorships to the superior race has partially subsided, but still there is a strong under current of suppressed wrath which occasionally bursts forth in earnest words of indignation from those who go around with colored blood in their veins. The negroes do not accept the situation with that hearty relish which would become them under the circumstances. They should learn that their mission here on earth, so far as politics is concerned, is to bolster the superior white man into soft positions, and they themselves be content to remain at the bottom round of the ladder of fame, with all prospects of ascension cut off.

Monday night at the caucus, called for the purpose of nominating the three Senators, afterwards elected, and before Tweedy's order unseating all outside barbarians had been promulgated, I saw a white man industriously elbowing his way among the colored men, giving to each a small slip of white paper, upon which was written but one word, "Whitely." Then began the irresistible conflict for Baird, colored, and Wallace, also colored, besides half a dozen others, all colored, had set their faces like flint in favor of giving their unexpired term for which Whitely was an aspirant, to a negro.

"What's dis?" said an ancient African, to whom one of the "Whitely" pieces of paper was handed.

"Oh, it's the name of the man we want put through for the unexpired term. He's a sound Radical and all right."

"Yes; but I think we're entitled to one man in this here business, bein' there's three to be elected. Whitely may have repented for having fit agin the Gov'ment, and become a good Radical; but we're going to run through a black man on that line, or try mighty hard."

And they did try mighty hard; but it was a fight against fate and the white man, both of which, taken together, make a strong team, and Africa was overthrown.

But while they are not in the best of humor over the manner in which the thing has been managed, yet they are disposed to chew the cud of disappointment in silence, and not disturb the harmony of the party by anything like open revolt. If they were disposed to secede in a body from the party, as a matter of revenge, they could slay the white part of it, for without the negroes the Republican organization in Georgia would not amount to a respectable shadow. The whites know this very well; but at the same time they know that the negroes will do nothing more serious than to grumble a little, as the offices, one by one, fall into the hands of the superior race; and so they continue in the good work of reaping the harvest the negroes have sown, and allowing that class to enjoy the inestimable privilege of doing the voting.

WHAT NEXT?

Reports from Washington indicate that the Judiciary Committee, who have the Georgia matter in charge, are sorely perplexed to know what to do with the muddle. They don't like to indorse Bullock's Military Board, as it would establish a dangerous precedent, and not to inderse it would be to throw everything into confusion again, or more properly, cause a shade more of confusion to overspread the face of the already confused mess.

But the Military Board question is of but small moment, compared to a dozen other questions that loom up before the bewildered committee. Governor Bullock, and several other State officers, set up a claim that they are entitled to hold their positions for the full term to which they were elected, beginning at the present time. That is to say, they propose to count the time they have already served, up to the present, as nothing, and take a fresh start. The committee don't know what to do with this question. If Bullock is Provisional now, he has been provisional all the time; and if he has been Provisional from the first, he has not yet been Governor stricti juris; and if he has not been Governor stricti juris, he can't be until the State is re-admitted into the Union, for a State that is out of the Union, can not have a civil Governor; and if he is not civil Governor, he is not what he was elected to be, and consequently, his term of service will begin from the date of the re-admission of the State to the Union. This is three columns of the argument of the Bullockers boiled down to a few lines. The other side meet it by saying that things are in a devil of a fix, any way.

The Senatorial question or that which used to be a question before it got into such a tangle that the term question does not do justice to the subject, is not the least interesting point of this singular business. While the Committee at Washington were discussing the subject as to the admission of Hill and Miller, here comes three more Senators with their carpet-bags full of credentials, making five in all. All these patriots are clamorous for their seats, and each one has an argument a mile long in support of his right to be admitted in preference to anybody else. It is said that the committees, who have got certain sections of the muddle under investigation, are very much divided as to what two out of the five ought to be admitted. It is known that the President favors Hill and Miller, because they have not got any policy in particular, and of course, under such circumstances, they would support his measures. As for Farrow and Whitely, it is uncertain where they stand, or what policy they will champion, other than an extreme Radical policy. They are both Radicals, and, of course, ultra ones, for they were actively engaged during the war in the defense of the Lost Cause. Down here when a man deserts his former companions and goes over to the enemy, he goes the whole animal, as a half way policy would kill him with both sides.

Take the case of Farrow, for instance. Those who remember him as he was during the war, running around over the State with a pick-ax and pine knot torch, hunting saltpetre dirt in all the caverns of the earth, and swearing that he would keep the Yankees away from the sacred soil, if it took the last drop of potash in all his caves—I say those who remember him as he was then, would of course have to witness fruits meet for repentance, to convince them that he had buried his pick-ax and thrown away his torch light pole in earnest, and with a firm resolve to become a good Radical.

To convince the skeptical that he is all right on the goose, or more appropriately, all right on the negro, Farrow follows in the footsteps of the illustrious Sumner, and astonishes the natives by the boldness of his war against the rebels. Even his companions in the saltpetre dirt business, find no mercy at his hands, as was demonstrated at the recent trial of the Democrats before the military commission, where it was hinted in evidence that one of the defendants dabbled in saltpetre and potash.

As for Whitely, he was an officer in the Confederate service, and fought the war through to an unsuccessful termination, and then became a Radical. He is now in Washington with Farrow, and these two gentlemen are engaged at present in butting their heads against Miller and Hill in a lively manner. It is impossible even to guess with any degree of certainty, as to which side will win in this novel contest.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

Gold—Southern Securities—Other Matters.

The steady and satisfactory fall in gold creates a good deal of solicitude among the members of the gold exchange as to the future of that peculiar institution. When gold settles down to par, and remains substantially at that point, of course there will be no further opportunity for speculation, and the field of so many exciting contests between the bulls and bears of Broad street must be abandoned or deserted to other purposes. The gold brokers are talking of starting business in stocks and running opposition to the regular stock board. It is likely, however, that this plan will succeed; the stock brokers will oppose it very firmly, as an encroachment on their privileges and field of operations, and being much stronger in money and numbers, must carry the day.

Money operators are members of both boards, and taking away from the gold dealers those who now hold seats in the stock board, will leave a party too small to compete with the stock operators. Southern State bonds are gradually improving in the market, and Georgia's are bound to rise when the State is fully restored to representation. The resources and opportunities of the State are sufficient security for the bonds, and though she has been so long denied her just place in the Federal galaxy, her credit still stands intact and her honor untarnished. Southern railroad bonds are also becoming a more and more popular investment, and capitalists here are looking South for safe and lucrative employment of large amounts of capital. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad bonds, which Fisk and Hatch have lately taken up, and are now selling rapidly, represent one of the most important enterprises ever undertaken in the entire South, and one which will especially benefit the interior portions.

The road which connects not only the Atlantic and the river navigation of the West, but the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, by the shortest possible route, is certain to be pushed through to early completion, and successful operation afterwards. Its own resources in coal, iron and timber, along its route, are unequalled, and almost inexhaustible, and their development and employment will greatly augment the material and substantial prosperity of the Old Dominion. The advantages to Central and Western Georgia, while less immediate, will not be less important, and it must be a source of congratulation to citizens of both States, as well to all along the line, that the enterprise is in such worthy and competent hands.

Literary, art and dramatic matters are at their dullest. Fechter has gone over to Boston, whence it is rumored he will return and play Hamlet at Booth's, alternating with the great Edwin, and at Wallack's the new Lost at Sea is coming, while Mr. Lester Wallack makes a starring tour through New England. "Packard's Monthly" has followed the example of Mayne Ried's "Onward," and succumbed to fate, having been sold out to Fowler & Wells, the phrenologists. How much better this is than the simple, easy death of "Onward," time will tell.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

Some Atlanta Schools—A Word to Teachers—How to Obtain Schools.

Mr. Editor: April 12th, 1869, to the Orphan's Home Free School a charter was granted, six enterprising ladies of Atlanta being the recipients, and thirty pupils were on the roll the opening day. Not a year has yet elapsed and the number has increased to one hundred. Mrs. A. P. Hill, the Superintendent, who is assisted by three teachers, informs me that 160 children from some of the best families in the city and vicinity have been taught in the interim The books are furnished gratis, and the orphans themselves are educated to teach. The entire institution is under the auspices of the Georgia State Lottery Association. It immediately moves into the new brick edifice, the dimensions of which were duly published in these columns. The rooms devoted to the school are equipped with the modern, improved school furniture, from the factory of Waters, Monteith & Co., Chattanooga.

The numerous friends of Mrs. Jno. S. Prather, wife of the well known editor, will be glad to learn, that since she has removed to Atlanta, she has been able to give her undivided attention to teaching. The "rock house" on Peachtree street, has already become a favorite resort of lovers of a sound elementary education. A number of valuable text-books, of recent publication, have been secured to the school, thus saving much expense and trouble to the pupils in the purchase of books. The present attendance is thirty, and the prospects are favorable to an enlargement of the school and the introduction of modern appointments next April.]

The McDonough street Female School, under the supervision of Miss Laura A. Haygood, the Principal, limits its attendance to fifty. All the branches of a liberal English education are taught, with Latin, German, French, Music and Drawing.

M'lle Sterchi, who teaches the modern languages in this Institution, is one of the great women of Atlanta. With slight assistance from the city, and more from private families, but both inadequate, she has sustained the brunt of the educational charitable work of Atlanta, and it has not been light. I do not intend to recount here what she has struggled against and what she has accomplished, nor under what difficulties. I wish simply to say that a year's thorough travel over Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi has shown me but one of God's creatures who is the peer of M'LLE E. STERCHI.

I wish to suggest to the teachers and community who shall read this issue of THE CONSTITUTION the propriety of availing themselves of some system by which, when necessary, they may find each other. Educated and thoroughly competent teachers are very rare, almost as rare as the localities which can appreciate them. I have been applied to for them from almost every direction. And on behalf of both I have been in the habit of keeping and still solicit the names of good teachers, with the time when they may be able to accept good locations, even if it be six or twelve months ahead. Address box 201, Atlanta.

ANOTHER KU-KLUX OUTRAGE.—A few days since, an old negro from the country was taken in and done for to the tune of $15, by that notorious confidence operator, Jake Christian. The thief was arrested by the police, indicted by the grand jury of the City Court, now in session, tried, on yesterday, and convicted. But his conviction did not restore the money which he had taken from his victim, and the complainant was in a strange place, without a cent in his pocket, and unable to get away. Hearing this, the members of the grand jury and the chief of police made up a purse of $13 75 to reimburse him for the loss he had sustained. THAT SMASH-UP.—We heard a gentleman who had returned from the scene of the great treble freight train smash-up on the Southwestern Railroad, on Wednesday morning, giving the result of the accident to a few friends yesterday. He said twelve box cars were smashed and their contents scattered and damaged to a considerable extent, while several other box cars received more or less injury. The damage is estimated at about $10,000.—Macon Telegraph.

THE WORK PROGRESSES.—Over one hundred hands arrived by the Macon & Brunswick Railroad on yesterday from the interior, destined to aid in pushing forward the Brunswick and Albany Railroad. The track is being laid in Hulbert style.—[Brunswick Appeal.

Debate on the Georgia Bill.

Butler Calls the Previous Question.

Vote to be Taken on Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

A full House present, and much interest manifested.

Bingham opened the debate in an able, Constitutional speech against the Georgia bill. He declared he would not support the measure of appointing a Legislature and Governor for a free people by act of Congress.

Davis, of New York, supported the bill in an intemperate harrangue, abounding in the grossest misstatements. He claimed that Congress still had the power to legislate for Georgia. He charged the people with infamy and bad faith, in seating unreconstructed rebels in the Legislature. He termed the expulsion of the negroes a crime against humanity and law, and said the negroes were expelled for the crime of color, and men steeped to the lips in treason were seated in their steads. Georgia thus relieved Congress from its former acts for her admission, and must come in through the same gateway as other rebellious States. He eulogized Bullock, and said had he chosen he might have struck hands with the rebels, with purse proud aristocrats, who had lost their slaves, but God did not move him to do so. History will embalm Bullock's name as one who obeyed the dictates of God and law.

Davis was frequently called to order by Farnsworth, Bingham and others, who endeavored to correct his misstatements, and propounded questions which Davis was unable or unwilling to answer.

Butler called the previous question, insuring a vote to-morrow.

ARGUS.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—In the Senate Mr. Harlan presented joint resolutions from the Legislature of Iowa in favor of removal of the capitol, and against further appropriations for public buildings.

Mr. Morton presented a bill declaring Texas entitled to representation; which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The funding bill was resumed.

The Senate is still in session.

Customs to-day $688,000.

The Committee on Railroads and Canals of the House agreed to report favorably on the bill authorizing a road from Norfolk to to St. Louis via Cincinnati.

The President nominated G. F. Marlowe for Postmaster at Selma, Ala., Wm. Leahy Assessor Eighth Virginia District, and S. Winstead Collector Fifth North Carolina District.

It is stated that the Ways and Means Committee have agreed to abolish the income tax.

In the case of the United States vs. Grossmeyer, it was held by the United States Supreme Court to-day that after the commencement of the war a creditor of the North could not authorize a debtor at the South to invest the amount of the indebtedness in cotton for the benefit of the creditor; and if such a purchase was made at the request of the creditor through an agent, no tittle was thereby vested in the creditor, and he could not claim the proceeds of the cotton, it having been seized and sold under the captured and abandoned property act.

In the House, a resolution of the Mississippi Legislature was presented, asking the speedy removal of political disabilities.

Wells introduced a bill to reclaim the swamp lands of Mississippi Valley, and promote the commerce of the Northwest.

The President was interrogated regarding the action of the British Government in excluding Americans from the Canadian fisheries.

The House refused to allow Gollody, of Kentucky, to withdraw his resignation, notwithstanding the Governor's refusal to accept it.

The Georgia bill resumed, and after seconding the previous question the House adjourned. The vote will be taken to-morrow.

The Venezuela minister died suddenly His secretary went to the State Department to make arrangements for his reception, and on his return found him dead.

The following occurred between Orth, a member of the House Committee, and Sumner, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs:

Orth—We had Cuba up to-day, but came to no conclusion.

Sumner—Do you know what is in the wind?

Orth—No.

Sumner—Well, in a few days there will be no necessity for action regarding Cuba.

[Here the colloquy was interrupted. It occurred on the street cars.]

AUGUSTA, March 7.—Mr. J. W. Simonton, General Agent of the New York Associated Press, was met here to-day, by A. R. Lamar, Esq., President Southern Press Association, Capt. F. W. Dawson and W. W. Screw, Esq., members of the Executive Committee, and after a full and free conference of affairs connected with the Press service, the parties separated mutually satisfied. The result of the conference will be laid before the Southern Press Convention at its next session.

CHARLESTON, March 7.—The steamer Falcon reported the steamer Eagle, from New York, for Havana, aground on Body Island. Attempts to communicate with her have failed on account of heavy sea. The Falcon's officers think the crew and passengers are in no danger, but fear a total loss of the steamer and cargo.

NORFOLK, March 7.—The Eagle's lower hold is full of water. Some of the passengers and crew have been landed. Others will be landed next low tide.

NEW ORLEANS, March 7.—The extra session of the Legislature is convened.

The militia and city charter bills passed the Senate.

Raining. Mercury 50 degrees.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The report that the City of Boston had arrived at Liverpool can not be traced. It is since said to be a hoax.

MADRID, March 7.—Prim states that the Cabinet, except Topete, are anti-Monpensier.

A Ministerial crisis is supposed to be imminent.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, MARCH 8.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL.—"It is a work of supererogation to praise 'Appleton,' or, in other words Appleton's Journal. We are inclined to belive, says the New York Day Book, there has never appeared an American publication that has strengthened its hold on the American reader so rapidly as this ever-welcome periodical. Criticise it closely, analyse it with a microscopic minuteness, and it is hardly possible to find a flaw or an imperfection in any department. We may be pardoned for a disposition to pass strong encomiums upon 'Appleton,' when we announce that we have enjoyed the luxury of a quiet perusal of the eleventh monthly issue, so rich in literary matter, so entertaining and instructive, and withal so gorgeous in illustrations. The first-class editorial supervision of 'Appletons,' to be sure, warrants the careful and critical reader in his great expectations, and he, without doubt, would feel keenly disappointed if the viands furnished him anything short of a 'feast of reason' and 'a flow of soul,' and not the least inviting of these viands, which so tempt the senses, are the superb engravings, etc., alluded to, which must add enormously to the cost of the work, but expense seems not to have been taken into account by the liberal and enterprising publishers.

"Literature, Science, and Art, are given to the subscribers in their highest character, at the price of ten cents each weekly number, four of which make up the splendid February monthly, which is a fair specimen of what each subscriber receives for the entire year. We can not refrain from expressing our profound admiration for 'Appleton,' and say to our readers that it should be a weekly visitant to their homes, and have a prominent place on their parlor centre tables."

The price of Appletons' Journal is $4 00 per annum; $2 00 for six months; or, for a club of subscribers, six copies for the price of five.

DEKALB SUPERIOR COURT.—DeKalb Superior Court was commenced yesterday, Judge J. R. Parrott, presiding.

Isham Fowler (col) plead guilty to the charge of burglary in the day time, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for three years.

The Court adjourned until the second Monday in July.

LIGHTNING SCHEDULE.—Sunday night, for the first time, one of Pullman's sleeping cars left Atlanta for Louisville, Ky. This car will run through without change, and all the time. One of Payne's parlor cars left Louisville on Sunday night for Atlanta. These companies will run cars daily between Louisville and Atlanta, and will be a quick and comfortable arrangement for the traveling public.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—We learn that the night passenger train on the Western and Atlantic Railroad will leave on and after Sunday next at 7.30 o'clock P. M., and will arrive at 6 o'clock A. M. The Georgia Railroad day passenger will probably change to correspond.

THE RINK.—This is fine weather for skating, and the votaries of the straps and rollers will be in high glee to-night. The attendance continues undiminished, and with such good music and agreeable company the pastime is positively delightful.

STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the State Medical Association will be held in Macon on Wednesday, the 13th of April next.

A HANDSOME PRESENT.—Messrs. Lawshe & Haynes, on Saturday, presented Emory College, through Col. Stewart, with a magnificent clock.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.—At a special session of Council last night, the contract for the lease of the Fair Ground to Mr. Kimball was arranged and agreed on.

PRETTY GOOD.—Thurman of Ohio is a sharp one. Mack, the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer vouches for the following, which was a neat turning of the tables by Thurman on Wilson:

"They tell a good thing on Revels, which causes me to doubt the confidence of the Radicals in his intelligence and loyalty. A few days ago Wilson, in conversation with Judge Thurman, remarked, by way of a pleasant joke, that as there were no vacant seats on the Republican side of the chamber, they had concluded to give Revels a desk next to him (Thurman). Wilson thought Thurman would enter a serious protest—but he didn't. He jumped at once to a practical view of the matter and replied, "All right. Put him next to me, and I'll have him voting with the Democrats on every question that comes up in less than a week." Wilson did't laugh any more—and Revels wasn't seated next to Thurman. The Radicals took him to their own side, evidently regarding him as a tender lamb of the fold, in need of a little nursing.

What will be Next Sold.

"Mack" further says: Suppose Whittemore did sell a cadetship, hasn't Grant sold Cabinet offices? And should we not, instead of having our moral sensibilities outraged at an advertisement offering a West Point scholarship for sale, rather expect, one of these days, to meet something like the following the New York and Cincinnati dailies:

For sale—A Cabinet office with three years to run. Will be sold with or without the patronage of the Department. Terms cash or improved real estate. Address U. S. G., Washington, D. C.

Or this:

For Sale—Or will exchange for a bull pub. a post-office in a pleasant country town. Salary $1,000 per annum. Address Dent, Washington, D. C.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Alderman Howell—adopted.

Resolution, That the salary of the Clerk of market for 1870, be fixed at $75 per month.

FAIR GROUNDS AND STATE FAIR.

The sealed proposals for leasing and conducting the State Fair opened, and the following resolution adopted:

Resolved, That the bid of H. I. Kimball be accepted, with the understanding, as represented by Col. J. L. Hopkins, his attorney, that he is to give ample bond and security for the payment of the $12,500 per annum rent for the Fair Ground property, for the term of six years from January 1st, 1871, rent payable July 1st, 1871, and each subsequent year, in case the city should not think proper to re-rent; and with the further understanding that one of the provisions of said bond shall be, that, in case of fire, the said Kimball shall replace the Fair Ground buildings, the city keeping them insured for the sum of $40,000 for his benfit; and with the further understanding that the City of Atlanta shall only be bound to place Marietta street, at its present width, in first class traveling order.

ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 24, 1870.

Messrs. Calloway, Dunning and Murphy, Committee:

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with your advertisement for proposals from responsible parties for the improvement of the Fair Grounds and buildings as required by your contract with the Georgia State Agricultural Society, I most respectfully beg leave to submit to your honorable committee the following proposition. I will, however, preface my proposition with a few suggestions explanatory thereof.

In examining your contract with the Society, I find that you are bound to provide for the payment of all premiums awarded by the Society, also to pay all salaries and other expenses of the Society prior to, and during the Fair of 1870.

With all due respect to your committee, I do not believe it expedient for any individual or private party to undertake to comply with that portion of your contract. I deem it much more advantageous to the city and Society, that all incomes derived from the Fair of 1870, separate from that received from the gates and from the rents of stalls, booths, etc., admitted upon the grounds, be controlled entirely by the city and Society, i. e., all incomes derived from initiation fees of members and upon articles entered for premiums, shall be appropriated for the payments of premiums and expenses of the Society, the city assuming to receive any surplus, or make up any deficit there may arise between the receipts and disbursements as above.

Therefore, my proposition will be made independent of such incomes and disbursements. What I propose is as follows, viz:

To build upon and improve the Fair Grounds according to the specifications contained in your contract with the State Agricultural Society in a good and substantial manner.

To erect, in addition to the specifications referred to, a handsome and ornamental arched gateway or entrance to the said Fair Grounds, and it is believed that these improvements will cost in cash not less than sixty-five thousand dollars, and I propose to complete them in all the details, and have them ready for the use of the Society on or before the first day of October next.

In consideration of the above, the Mayor and Council of the city of Atlanta shall issue to me ($75,000) seventy-five thousand dollars of the ordinary bonds of the city, upon my giving bond and security to faithfully complete the improvements as heretofore specified within the time agreed upon, or return to the city its bonds issued to me as above. It being understood that all the improvements made upon said Fair Grounds shall belong absolutely to the city.

The city shall grade, gravel, cinder and repair Marietta street from Peachtree street to said Fair Grounds at an early day, and make said street at least fifty feet wide, and a first-class drive-way in every respect.

They shall also obtain in writing from the Superintendent of the Western and Atlantic Railroad an agreement that he will lay a double track between the Car-Shed and the said Fair Grounds, previous to the opening of the Fair, and run passenger trains between those points during the Fair, as often as every fifteen minutes; and further, to transport over the said road all lumber and other material used in the improvement of said Fair Grounds free of charge.

To insure the said improvements against loss by fire, if the improvements or any part of the same shall be burned previous to the Fair of 1870, they shall replace the portion so destroyed or damaged, or pay me the actual cost of replacing the same. The city shall also furnish an ample police force during the Fair of 1870, and such subsequent Fairs as may be held during the existing of my contract. The chief of said police force to be nominated by myself. To appoint me the general manager of the said Fair Grounds, and all that pertains to the admission and conduct of visitors thereto, to rent all booths, stands, rooms, grounds, etc., except such rooms as are specified to be occupied or used by the State Agricultural Society for the year 1870. To allow me to collect for my own use and in such manner as I may deem proper, all rents, issues and profits arising out of use of said Fair Grounds or dues from visitors thereto, except sums derived from membership and entrance fees upon articles to be exhibited at any Fair held in said grounds. But the price of admission shall not exceed the sum charged at the State Fair held in Macon, A. D. 1869, and the right to control the manner of exhibiting articles entered for exhibition at the Fair of 1870, shall belong exclusively to the State Agricultural Society.

The city to lease said Fair Grounds to me for the term of six years from the 1st day of January, A. D. 1871, at the rate of twelve thousand five hundred dollars per annum, payable on the first day of July in each year, in the bonds of the city; I to keep the said improvements in good repair, ordinary wear and tear excepted. But the city to keep the improvements on said Grounds insured during the term, for my benefit, and to keep Marietta street in the condition herebefore mentioned. So far as my contract relates to the Fair of 1870, it shall be assented to by the State Agricultural Society. In case of failure on my part to pay the rent on the day of its maturity, the city shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of the property without process of law or notice to me, and to treat the lease as being at an end. The city to get the said Grounds incorporated for police purposes.

It may not be improper for me to state in this connection, that should the Council accept the terms of this proposition, that I shall spare no trouble or expense to make the entire enterprise a complete success for the city of Atlanta, and would respectfully refer your honorable Committee to the manner in which I have executed previous contracts with the city, as an evidence of what might be expected, should this contract be awarded to me.

I am, gentlemen, most respectfully yours,
H. I. KIMBALL.

SPAIN.

A Graphic Picture of The Sombre Old Power, by Sunset Cox.

Another reason why Spain is so often belittled is that she was once so grand, and has dropped from her high state. Time, which has carved out so many splendid figures in this last century of material greatness for other lands, has defaced the grandiose statues of the Roman, Gothic, Moorish and Spanish races, which severally made Spain a power and splendor on the earth. What Cervantes intended to teach Spain about her eras of romance and knighthood is illustrated in the very name which he gives to his hero. He calls him the Knight of the Sorrowful Countenance. The long, lank Don Quixote, proud of his hidalgo, degree, and mien, and rushing to the defense of the knightly code long after that code was obsolete in the world, is a good illustration of that Spanish pride which lives to-day, and in an age of steam and telegraphs, as if its traditions were progress and its reverence reason and its splendid cathedrals museums of science! Spanish pride has been the theme of many a pen besides that of Cervantes. It is the commodity which, of all others, she has most exported, and yet loses none.

"Spain gives us pride, which Spain of all the earth,
May freely give, yet fear herself no dearth."

But Spain has much to boast of. Her pride is pardonable when her history is heeded. Of course we must smile at it; but after all, we bow to it with some sort of veneration. Even the mock Duke in the play made his servitors, and the real Duke himself, duck before him. Go into any Spanish town to-day—even in the cities, where the newspapers are sung by the sharp treble of the old senoras who vend them—and I care not at what hour you choose to visit the Almeda, or promenade, you will see groups of grandiose cabelleros, standing picturesquely under the palm trees or in the sun, or seated upon the stone seats, wrapped up to the chin in the ancestral cloak. While you admire the dignity with which they twirl the paper for the manufacture of the cigarette, or the Romanesque elegance with which they conceal under their toga their shirtless breasts—you can not refuse their high-bred salutation of "Buenos dias Cabellero." There they are, monuments of old Spain, living on august recollections, with an occasional ollapodrida, well seasoned with red pepper and redolent of garlic! There is an innate dignity in the Spaniard—even when using the pitchfork in the barn, or entering the bull ring on a Rosinante.

But these Cabelleros are not the representative men of Spain to-day. I will presently develop the new elements which are transforming the land of the Cid and of Cervantes—the realm of Charles V, Phillip II, and Charles III—into higher reaches of civilization. Spain is already upon the track of progress. Her running is slow; her collisions frequent; her freight cars not over laden; her passengers local, but after all, she is on the track, and her olden pride is being consumed as fuel to run her into the depot of prosperity. I hope to show that Spain has made immense strides toward prosperity within the last two or three decades, and that in the last year she has leaped forward like one of her own Andalusian coursers, and not without much prancing the chariot of progress swiftly, as well as safely. It is notfair to compare Spain with the United States in this respect, nor to contrast our Republic—which is the blossom of the magnificent strength of many nationalities—with the Republics which are the fruit of Spanish planting. It is not fair, because, as Squier and other observers of Spanish-American States, have remarked, the Spanish States are effete and decayed—the fruit rotten ripe before its time—because of the mongrel character of their red, black and white races, while hitherto we have been comparatively untainted by such corrupting commixtures.

The races which make up old Spain have in them many bloods. The Gothic is a tremendous power in the Spanish race; the Moorish still determines many of its characteristics—and that mixture is by no means deleterious to either when the features of each are analyzed. Up until the end of the last century, from causes hereafter apparent, Spain decayed; but since then she has grown enormously, and that, too, in spite of drawbacks of the most serious, aggravating, but not irremediable, character. Less than a century ago, Spain had not more than seven millions of population. Now she has eighteen millions. Population is a touch-stone of progress only next to education. In 1803 there was one in three hundred and forty educated in Spain; now there is one in fifteen. Nations now-a-days are great or small by the muscular as well as mental vigor which they can wield. To be disenchanted with the idea that Spain is an old rickety nation ready to dissolve from inanition, or to break to pieces by political convulsion, go into Catalonia, Valencia, and the Basque provinces, and visit her manufacturing establishments.

It was to me astonishing to see the steady industry of the Spanish peasantry, evoking, through irrigation, the fruits of their toil. Pictures of the fandango, the castanet, the guitar and the dance of Andalusia, which Irving painted in my memory, gave way to other visions, as I saw the toiling thousands making the vegas golden with grain, green with olive and grape. But I was more astonished to hear the hum of manufacture, and to see the smoke-stacks of thousands of mills, whence come the finest textile fabrics. One phase of this progress is that these industrial parts of Spain are republican; or if not republican, are liberal in politics. Prim is from Barcelona, the son of a washerwoman, and representative in many ways of the new elements of 1848, when thrones toppled, and democracy, for a time, seized the fasces of power, these portions of Spain have grown greatly.

Local and Business Notices.

Caution.

Planters, in purchasing SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO, should be very cautious, and BE CERTAIN to see on the bags the brand, "J. S. Reese & Co.'s Soluble Pacific Guano." Adair & Bro. are the only authorized agents here. We know of a few who purchased Sardis' Ammoniated Soluble Pacific, thinking it was same thing as our Guano, which IS NOT SO.

Respectfully,
ADAIR & BRO.

SINKING SLOWLY.—Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested, it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is something inexpressibly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languor, pallor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a distaste for exertion, are its ordinary symptoms, and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment. The best invigorant and exhilarant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital forces thus brought into play. The failing appetite is re-awakened, the process of digestion and assimilation is quickened, the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishment of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of diseases has the beneficent operation of the Bitters been more marked and striking than in those characterized by general debility and nervous prostration. Ladies affected with these ailments find in this most wholesome of all tonics and correctives the safest and surest means of relief. It is strong to restore and powerless to injure. Such is the uniform testimony of "clouds of witnesses."

mch8-deod1w&w1t

THE WIFE, both before and after she has become a matron, will find Plantation Bitters literally a present help in time of trouble; and, under no circumstances or condition, can it prove otherwise than beneficial. During nursing, it may be taken as an invigorant with great advantage, both to mother and infant; and when maternal anxiety is awakened by the failing appetite, unnatural languor and general indisposition of a delicate daughter, there is no tonic or alterative which will work such a rapid and healthful change in the condition of the fair invalid as Plantation Bitters. For the morning lassitude and depression of spirits, caused by late hours and what is called fashionable dissipation, there is nothing comparable to this famous vegetale restorative.

Persons who have once tasted Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, or Creams made from Sea Moss Farina, and served with good rich cream or milk, will never need coaxing to use it, as it makes one of the most delicious, nutritious, economical and health-giving articles of food ever provided by a bountiful Providence.

WALLED IN WITH PAPER!—Why are the hair coloring preparations kept dark? Simply because the light decomposes them and exposes their foul sediment. Hence, the bottles are jacketed with paste and paper. Phalon's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair, on the other hand, is as clear and transparent in the sunshine as in the shade. It receives the natural color in every time-bleached fibre, and does not stain the skin. Sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers. mch8-deod1w

JOY TO THE WORLD! WOMAN IS FREE! Among the many modern discoveries looking to the happiness and amelioration of the human race, none is entitled to higher consideration than the renowned remedy, Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, Woman's Best Friend. By it woman is emancipated from the numberless ills peculiar to her sex. Before its magic power all irregularities of the womb vanish. It cures whites. It cures suppression of the menses. [illegible] It braces the nerves and purifies the blood. It never fails, as thousands of women will testify. This valuable medicine is prepared and sold by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga. Price $1.50 per bottle. All respectable drug men keep it.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

There is no change to note from our evening market report. Meats are weakening and a decline is anticipated.

AGENT'S OFFICE
MACON AND WESTERN RAILROAD,
ATLANTA, GA., March 7, 1870.

Commercial Editor Constitution: Below I hand you statement of leading articles of freight shipped from Atlanta over this road during the past week:

497,437 lbs bacon; 34,427 lbs lard; 29,055 bushels corn; 2 540 bbls flour; 2,076 bushels oats; 304 bales hay. Very respectfully,

H. P. CLARK, Agent.

The Georgia Road sends off about 75 car loads of freight per day, upon an average, from this city. From Augusta, the Georgia Road send off 50 car loads of guano alone per day. One day last week they sent off 83 car loads of guano for points between Augusta and Covington.

The officers of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad are making every possible effort to get forward the great abundance of freight now waiting shipment South by their line, and hope soon to be relieved of the present remarkably heavy "freight blockade."

The prevailing feature in the market is an advance in quotations, and the tone of the market has improved considerably. Restricted shipment continues the embarrassing feature with dealers, orders being very liberal, and dealers being unable to send forward their orders to customers living on the Southern railroads.

BACON.—Stocks are light, and the demand is very active, with sales within the range of our quotations. Prices are quotably a shade firmer. Sales include 30 casks clear bacon sides at 16 1-2a17, 6 casks clear rib at 15 3-4a16, and 26 casks shoulders at 12 1-4a12 3-4 per lb, packed. Hams are in active demand, and sales include 10 tcs. sugar cured at 19a19 1-2 per lb.

BULK MEATS.—Prices rule firm, though not quotably higher, with light transactions within the range of our quotations. We quote clear sides at 15a15 1-2, with sales of 10 casks at 15 1-2 per lb. packed. Clear rib commands 14a14 3-4, and shoulders 10 3-4a11 1-2 per lb.

LARD.—The market is steady, and stocks are fully up to the requirements of the trade. We quote tierce, prime leaf at 16a 16 3-4 per lb, and keg at 17a17 1-2, with sales of 60 kegs at 17 1-2 per lb.

FLOUR—The demand to-day has been moderate, and prices rule firm, though not quotably higher. Stocks are ample with the exception of the low grades, but there will be an ample supply as soon as the mills are put in operation. Sales include 100 bbls fancy at 7,25; 100 bbls No. 1 at 6 25, and 350 bbls assorted.

WHEAT—The market continues very inactive, and transactions of little or no importance. We quote red, white, and amber at 1 00a1 05 per bushel on arrival.

OATS—Owing to the restricted shipments the market presents quite a gloomy appearance, and transactions of any importance can not be effected. Prices rule steady, with light sales within the range of our quotations. We quote white and black seed oats at 70a85. Feed oats command 61a 65, sacks included.

CORN—Prices rule firm, though not quotably higher, and but a moderate demand is reported, owing to the continued freight blockade on the Southern Railroads. Receipts are liberal, and prices are fully maintained. We quote choice shelled corn at 95, sacks included, and inferior grades at 93 from store; ear corn is steady 77a80 from store and 70a75 on arrival.

RYE—Stocks are ample and the demand is moderate, with transactions of limited magnitude within the range of our quotations. Receipts find ready sale at 80a85 per bushel, and orders from store command 87 a95 per bushel.

SUGARS—The market to-day has been unusually quiet, as no transactions of any importance were effected. Prices rule steady, and stocks are fully up to the requirements of the trade. We quote: Choice, 13 1-2a14; prime, 13a13 1-4; fully fair, 12 1-2a12 3-4; fair, 12a12 1-4; common 11 1-2a11 3-4.

EASTERN SUGARS—Dealers complain of [illegible] importance. [illegible] are entirely unchanged. We quote:

Hard standard, 14 3-4a15 1-2; A's, 14 1-2 a15; B's, 14 1-2a14 3-4; extra C, 14 1-4a 14 3-4; [illegible]; yellow, 13a14.

[illegible] within the range of our quotations. We quote Demerara at 14a14 3-4, Porto Rico at 13 1-4a14, Cuba at 12 1-2a13 1-2 per pound.

MOLASSES—Is in good jobbing demand [illegible] per gallon in hogsheads and half barrels.

SYRUPS—Stocks are good, and a moderate demand is experienced. We quote at 55a 1 50 for the various grades.

[illegible]—Receipts are very light, and prices rule firm though not quotably higher.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE PROV. XIII. 22.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INS. CO.

—NEW YORK—

The Original Joint-Stock Life Ins. Co. of the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the Insurance of first class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum insured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium with a promised dividend, which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the UNIVERSAL, the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474—difference, immediately secured, in favor of the UNIVERSAL, $3,277.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan the full value in insurance of the premium paid, is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE PREMIUMS

charged by the Universal are as low as the actual experience of insured life in this country will justify, and on the ordinary Life and Ten-Year Non-forfeiture policies are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the majority of Mutual Companies.

Special attention is asked to our "Return Premium Plan," by which the amount of the policy is secured simply by the temporary deposit of the annual premiums, which are returned in full, together with the amount assured, to the holder of the policy when it shall become a claim upon the Company. Also to the

"REDUCTION OF PREMIUM PLAN,"

by which a reduction of one-third is made in the premium after the first annual payment, being, in fact, equivalent to a dividend of 33⅓ per cent. A clause is inserted in the policies issued by the "Universal," in which these results are distinctly specified and guaranteed.

Pacific Guano Company's Soluble

PACIFIC GUANO.

CAPITAL $1,000,000—PRICE $72.50cts PER TON.

THIS Guano differs from Peruvian Guano simply in the relative proportions of the same elements of fertility. Its use during the past four years for the culture of Cotton and Corn, has given it a character for standard excellence unsurpassed by genuine Peruvian Guano, and when seasons of drought intervene, it produces a larger increase of crops.

The price at which the Guano is placed, is so much below that of Peruvian Guano, as to constitute it an object of material importance to Southern Agriculture.

The large capital and resources of the Company enable it to furnish a Guano of the highest value at the lowest possible cost to consumers, and the highest interest of the Company is recognized in this policy. The Company look to large sales, small profits and a permanent trade for compensation in capital invested. Dr. St. Julien Ravenel, of South Carolina, is Scientific Director to the Company, which affords a sure guarantee of the continued excellence of the Guano. None genuine unless branded with the name of John S. Reese & Co., General Agents of the Pacific Guano Company. For terms and mode of application, apply to

Pacific Guano Company's

COMPOUND

Acid Phosphate of Lime,

FOR COMPOSTING WITH COTTON SEED.

Price $25 50cts Per Ton.

THIS article is Manufactured at the Company's Works, under the direction and superintendence of Dr. Ravenel. It contains the same elements of fertility as Soluble Pacific Guano, except that it is not furnished with Ammonia. It is prepared expressly for composting with cotton seed, which furnishes the element of Ammonia; the object being to render that side product of the plantation available to the highest degree as an element of fertility. For further and particular information, apply to the undersigned.

SOMETHING NEW.

GRACE BLOUGH CRIPPEN.

For The Constitution.]

We've had so much of party talk,
Of politics and glory,
And dear knows what! there's woman's rights,
That everlasting story,
From morn till night—I'm tired to death
Of all this great ado;
Ye editors, and types, pray
Do give us something new.

It's suffrage on page number one,
And a speech from Susan B.,
And next three columns and a half
Reply from Horace G.
Do let them vote, dear little souls!
They're so upon it bent—
Then won't we have impartial laws
When Lizzie's President?

They've trouble enough now, I think,
Without their craving this,
With husbands running off to clubs,
(The heighth of manhood's bliss.)
But won't there be a "presto change"
The dailies all will note,
When woman in her masculines,
Just marches up to vote?

Millennium hasn't come just yet,
I'm thankful for it too,
So won't you, editors, next week,
Just give us something new?
Give us Chicago, duels, thieves,
And other awful sights—
Give us elopements, or a fire,
But don't talk woman's rights.

"The State Road."

For The Constitution.]

Mr. Editor: You will please give me space to a brief reply to your correspondent from Cartersville, in regard to Georgians being discharged from the State road to make place for carpet-baggers.

The Superintendent, Mr. Blodgett, is absent, and A. L. Harris, who is making himself obnoxious to all Georgians by the course indicated above, has been running a high hand in the absence of the Superintendent. It is true he has been turning off good and efficient men, and giving them in writing a certificate that they were not discharged for any cause for use for their services, and at the same time taking in others just imported from the North by himself. These men are arriving day after day, supposing A. L. Harris to be Superintendent and are furnished with free papers over the Road.

This conduct every Georgian deserving the name will and must condemn as a glaring outrage on the people of the State, especially Georgians, who are fully competent and efficient enough to run the State Road honestly, doing credit to themselves and honor to this great commonwealth.

My object in giving this brief article to the public is to assure THE CONSTITUTION and its readers that the Republican party do not expect to allow this man Harris to run his line in regard to the Road. Harris has been termed "one of the best railroad men in the South," but Georgia Republicans have not spoken thus on the subject. If reports be true, he has shown himself efficient only in purchase of cross-ties and wood and manipulating quite successfully for his own pocket. Now, if these reports are groundless, let Harris deny them and call for proof, I cannot say it can or would be brought to light, but perhaps something might be; possibly, I can't tell. It is not believed by Georgians on the Road, as yet, and by those discharged, that Mr. Blodgett will endorse the action of this tyrant and oppressor of Georgia Republicans simply because they are Southern born, or have lived a number of years in the State. It is suspected by some that Harris at least believes himself backed up by the Governor for he has been heard to say, so report goes, that he was to be made Superintendent, and unless he has some assurances of this character, he certainly has exhibited the impudence of the devil to suppose that his conduct would be tolerated in crushing out Georgia Republicans to make fat places for those of his own ilk from abroad.

Enough for the present.

A REPUBLICAN.

In the Senate, Friday, Mr. Wilson presented a memorial from J. Marshal Hanna, and others asking for female suffrage in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Judge Wm. J. Robertson, W. T. Sutherlin and P. H. Aylett, commissioners to confer with the West Virginia commissioners in regard to the State debt, left Richmond on Friday last for Wheeling.

Burlingame had an immense Russian funeral.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

—OR—

BLOOD CLEANSER!

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with

CARBOLIC ACID

For the Cure of

SCROFULA and CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all impurities, going at once to the fountain head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war, bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many full of scrofulous sores. Then of course the impurities of the Scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without disease, and both became infected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the west are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not until a few months ago, the origin of it.

HENRY'S CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR

Relieves the entire system of Pains and Aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood bounding through every vein. It imparts a Sparkling Brightness to the Eye.

A Rosy Glow to the Cheek.
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips.
A Clearness to the Head.
Brightness to the Complexion.
Buoyancy to the Spirits.
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kidneys is unsurpassed. People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"I was vaccinated in hospital. Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your Constitution Renovater sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbia, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles, I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my leg, and that is getting well fast."

This is from a lady: "And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your Renovater, is beautiful.

"Yes, yes, I may say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis. Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send four bottles per express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovater have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovater."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time. For all diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of the Urine, etc., and for female Diseases, Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude and Want of Appetite, it is Unsurpassed.

CAUTION.—In ordering our remedy, always place the number of our post-office box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-office compels this. Address,

THE WILLINGHAM FERTILIZER FOR COTTON, CORN, WHEAT.

THIS STANDARD MANURE, named after a well known practical Planter of South Carolina, combines in a concentrated form all the fertilizing elements ... production of COTTON, CORN and WHEAT, and by its use is certain to increase ... but to improve the quality of the products. It is made with a special view to the soils of the South, and can be relied upon as to excellence of material, containing ... sary substances, the great cost of which have heretofore precluded their being ... It can be depended on as uniform, always reliable, and productive of good crops.

ALBANY, GA., ...

Having a full knowledge of the composition and process of manufacture of the "... Cotton, Corn, Wheat and Rice Fertilizer," I have no hesitation in pronouncing it ... liable fertilizer, one of the best in use, and most particularly adapted to the soil of South Carolina.

NEAR JONESBORO, GA., Nov. 3, 1869.

Messrs. ABBOTT & BRO., Atlanta, Ga.—Sirs: In reply to your enquiry, as to the merits of Merryman's Raw Bone Phosphate, I take pleasure in stating that in my opinion there is no Fertilizer in use that is superior to it. I used it on my cotton, and am well pleased with it, and will use it more extensively another year. I do not hesitate to recommend it to all who want a good reliable Fertilizer.

Yours, truly, ELLISON RUSH.
